About Us

Husband and wife team, Julian and Karen Turner, are the founders of IslandLUXE Concierge Services, with backgrounds that complement and solidify IslandLUXE as a vacation services provider.

Karen, a native Caymanian, holds a Master's Degree in Communications from the University of Stirling, and worked as a public relations practitioner before becoming the chief operating officer of her family's successful interior decorating firm. She is a well known local singer and is a lead vocalist with Swanky Kitchen Band, the only remaining group dedicated to preserving indigenous Caymanian music.

Originally from Jamaica, Julian has extensive experience in the hospitality industry, and his previous employment with five-star chain Sandals Resorts has trained him in the art of delivering world-class service. Consequently, he was the recipient of numerous company awards, supported by the rave reviews he received from guests and colleagues, alike. Subsequently, Julian moved to the Cayman Islands where he continued to develop his hospitality skills in the food and beverage sector.

Together, Julian and Karen are committed to visitors experiencing the Cayman Islands, its culture and people up-close and personally.

They are proud of their home and their passion is ensuring clients fall in love with every aspect of the beautiful Cayman Islands through the unparalleled service of IslandLUXE Concierge Services.
